

Travel strategies during the 2023 Rugby World Cup.

During this year's Rugby World Cup, Wales were one of the most travelled teams while in France covering over 3500 miles on trains, planes and buses. This talk will share some of the strategies and experiences that helped with the preparation during the World Cup while minimising disruption on the players.